

Nixed vaccine mandate to let hundreds of suspended airport employees back to work

June 18, 2022

TOP STORY

Nixed vaccine mandate to let hundreds of suspended airport employees back to work

CTA DECISIONS

- Suspension - Modesto Executive Air Charter, Inc. c.o.b. Sky Trek Aviation - Order No. 2022-A-S-123

License no. 977118

- Suspension - Dal Aviation Ltd. - Determination No. A-2022-78

License No. 972093 - suspension continued

- Suspension - Business Jet Services, Ltd. - Order No. 2022-A-S-121

License no. 040008

- Suspension - Clifford S. Kamm c.o.b. SeaWind Aviation - Order No. 2022-A-S-122

License no. 040048

- Suspension - ACT Havayollari A.S. c.o.b. ACT Airlines - Order No. 2022-A-S-118

License no. 090096

TC/TSB NEWS

- Airworthiness directives
- Government of Canada and airport and airline partners making progress on reducing traveller wait times at Canada's major airports
- Inaccurate transponder information identified as a factor in March 2020 runway incursion and risk of collision at Toronto/Lester B. Pearson International Airport

- Interim Order for Civil Aviation Respecting Requirements Related to Vaccination Due to COVID-19, No. 3
- Interim Order Respecting Certain Requirements for Civil Aviation Due to COVID-19, No. 65
- Suspension of the mandatory vaccination requirement for domestic travellers and federally regulated transportation workers
- Transportation Safety Board of Canada releases 2021 transportation occurrence statistics

INDUSTRY ASSOCIATION NEWS

- ATAC – ATAC staff elected to important aviation board of directors
- COPA – Huronia Airport task force presents its final report
- COPA – STARS welcomes new helicopter to Grande Prairie
- NACC – Canada’s major airlines respond to changes to vaccination requirements impacting air travel

UNION NEWS

- IAMAW – Are we a team? LL712 members at Bombardier reject offer
- Unifor2002 – Air Canada: Greetings from the new bargaining committee
- Unifor2002 – Bargaining update for Unifor 2002 members at Jazz CSA/ACS
- Unifor2002 – SkyLink Express: Conciliation update
- Unifor2002 – Stop contract flipping at Canada’s airports

AIRPORT NEWS

- Canada to suspend random COVID testing to reduce airport wait times
- How can airports reach sustainability goals by investing in waste management
- Kamloops Airport looking at potential expansion both on the ground and in the air
- More common than expected: How standing water impacts airport safety and operations
- Nixed vaccine mandate to let hundreds of suspended airport employees back to work
- Stephenville airport could be on final approach to Dymond deal
- “Things should get back to normal by Q4”: Aviation expert on airport delays
- Top 5: A look at Canada’s busiest airports by passenger traffic
- Toronto airport will vary aircraft approach spacing to cut headwind-related delays
- YVR opens newly expanded international terminal for full operations

ROTARY OPERATOR NEWS

- Jaunt Air Mobility and Vertiko Mobility sign an agreement

AVIATION NEWS

- 2022-2023 Northern Action Plan – A \$9.5M investment for a new Air Inuit staff hour in Puvirnitug
- An update on WestJet’s progress on ensuring a gender inclusive booking and check-in experience
- Bombardier to resume negotiations with IAMAW Local 712 chapter representing workers in Dorval and Saint-Laurent, Québec
- Canada travel restrictions: What’s changing
- Canadian flight crew held in Dominican Republic appeals to prime minister for help
- De Havilland Canada says goodbye to Downsview
- NAV CANADA reports May traffic figures
- Ottawa announces suspension of vaccine mandates for domestic travellers, federal employees
- Pratt & Whitney Canada’s PW127XT-S engine selected to power D328eco regional turboprop
- WestJet and Aero Design Labs set out to reduce emissions and increase fuel efficiency in Boeing 737-700 aircraft